Build your dream home on this blank canvas 2/3 acre approx. Cleared block 10 minutes walk to town, 20 minutes drive to Bega, 15 minutes to Bermagui.

Cobargo blends the craftsmanship and charm of a working village with a rich historical past, its streets lined with numerous turn-of-the-century buildings that captivate visitors. These buildings often house artisans who sell a variety of unique goods, from woodcrafts and pottery to leatherwork and art. Visitors can frequently watch these craftspeople at work, practicing traditional techniques from Cobargo's early days.

Each year, hundreds of international and local musicians gather for the Cobargo Folk Festival, a renowned three-day event featuring exceptional folk and roots music, markets, camping, poetry, and more. Since its inception in 1996, the festival's popularity has soared, drawing thousands of attendees to the picturesque Bega Valley.
